Communication

Speech Communication is a supple program preparing you for a large number of careers. Students learn to be able to speak and write clearly and persuasively in various contexts and with diverse audiences, based on accurate evidence. Regardless of vocation, people need to be competent communicators who effectively influence others. Our democratic republic is based on the idea that individual citizens can and will express their opinions and perspectives in a manner that will change others spiritually, politically, and interpersonally.

Program Faculty

Dr. Doyle Srader

Prerequisites for the Major

- 1 year college-level proficiency in a modern spoken foreign language or a non-spoken language

Requirements of the Major

- Communication Theory
- Internship
- Pre-Capstone
- Senior Capstone
- Choose a Concentration:
    - Relational Communication
    - Public Speaking
    - Flexible

Flexible Concentration

Requirements of the Concentration

- Choose from the Following:
    - Public Speaking
    - Interpersonal Communication
    - Foundations of Public Speaking
- 27 Credits of Additional Program Faculty approved coursework*

*Program faculty and student will work together to identify a precise profession or workplace role and select 27 credits of courses (minimum of 18 upper division credits) from approved communication fields.

Bushnell UNIVERSITY

541-684-7343
admissions@bushnell.edu

828 East 11th Avenue
Eugene, OR 97401

bushnell.edu