

Center for Leadership
& Ethics

Date:
April 25

“ FAITH
&
WORK ”

Time:
11am — 12pm

Please join us on campus for the Center for Leadership & Ethics Spring Forum.

Speaker: Dr. Steven Garber, Senior Fellow of the M.J. Murdock Charitable Trust

Dr. Steven Garber is the Senior Fellow for Vocation and the Common Good for the M.J. Murdock Charitable Trust. He is the author of several books, including Visions of Vocation: Common Grace for the Common Good, and his most recent is The Seamless Life: A Tapestry of Love and Learning, Worship and Work. He is one of the founders of the Wedgwood Circle, and for many years, he was the Principle of the Washington Institute for Faith, Vocation and Culture. He continues to serve as a consultant to colleges and corporations, facilitating both individual and institutional vocation. He is a husband, a father, and a grandfather and lives in Virginia, near Washington DC, among family, friends, and flowers.

Location:
Morse Center Gym

Questions contact Bethany Dilla
541-684-7318 or email bdilla@bushnell.edu

Limited Parking Available*

*This event is co-sponsored by the Bushnell's
Center for Leadership & Ethics and
School of Bible & World Christianity*